FOREWORD

We present this, your yearbook, to you with the sincere hope that it will afford you pleasure for the present moment, and will, in the future, bring you vivid, happy memories of the past—the best years of your life, your high school days.

Dear Bonnie
It has been nice to have you as a
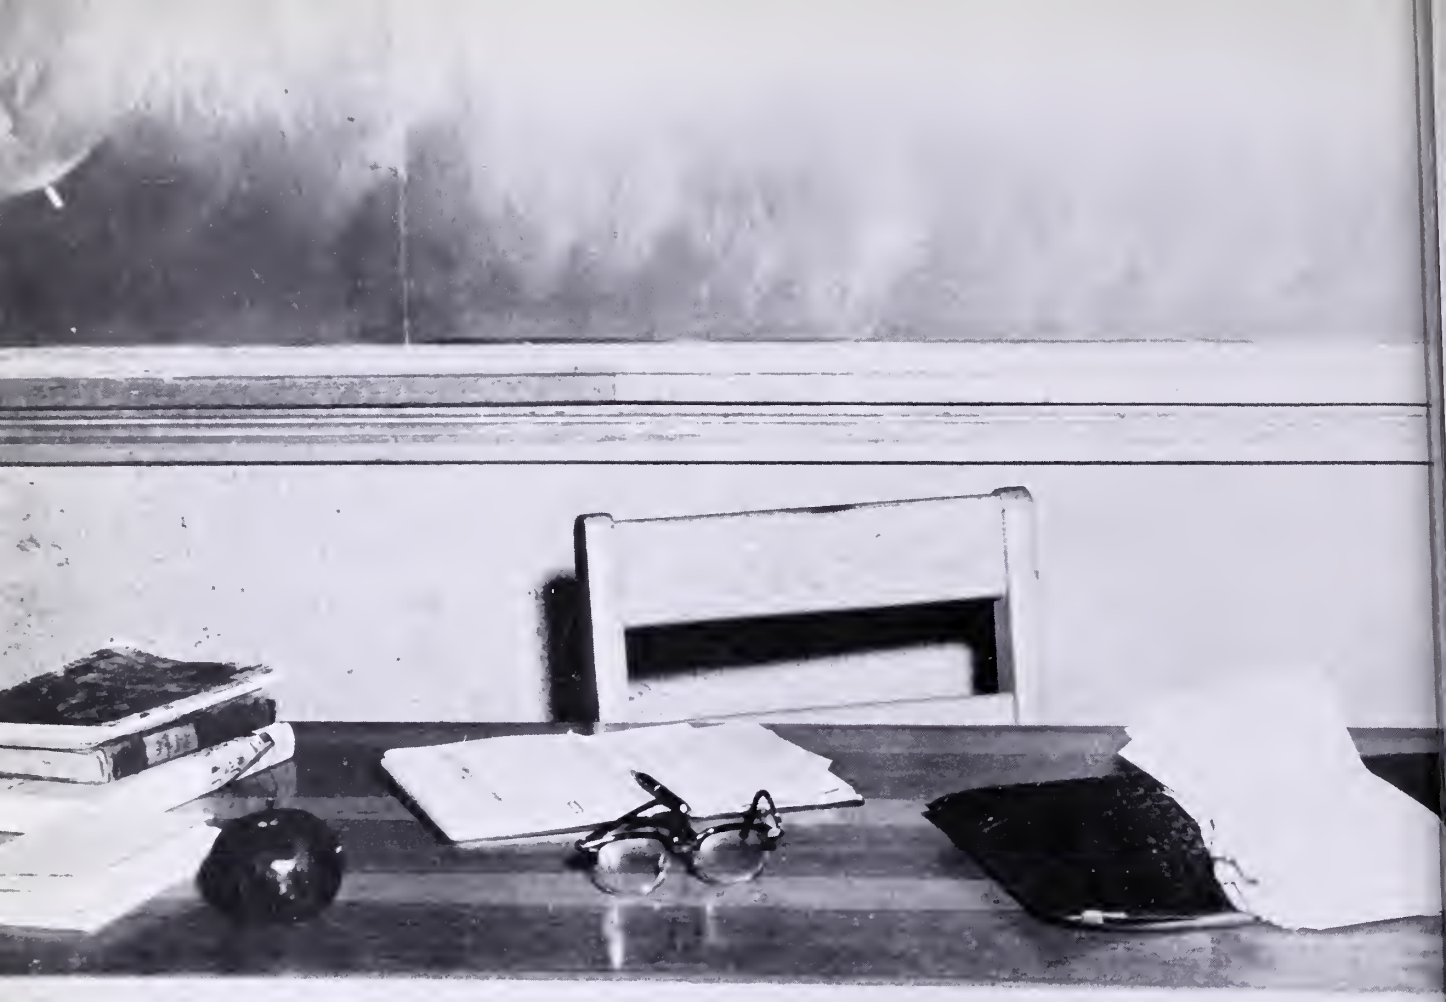
Cell mate this year
Sing Sing. Sly Vermillion
P.S. Best of Luck
with Love,

ALMA MATER

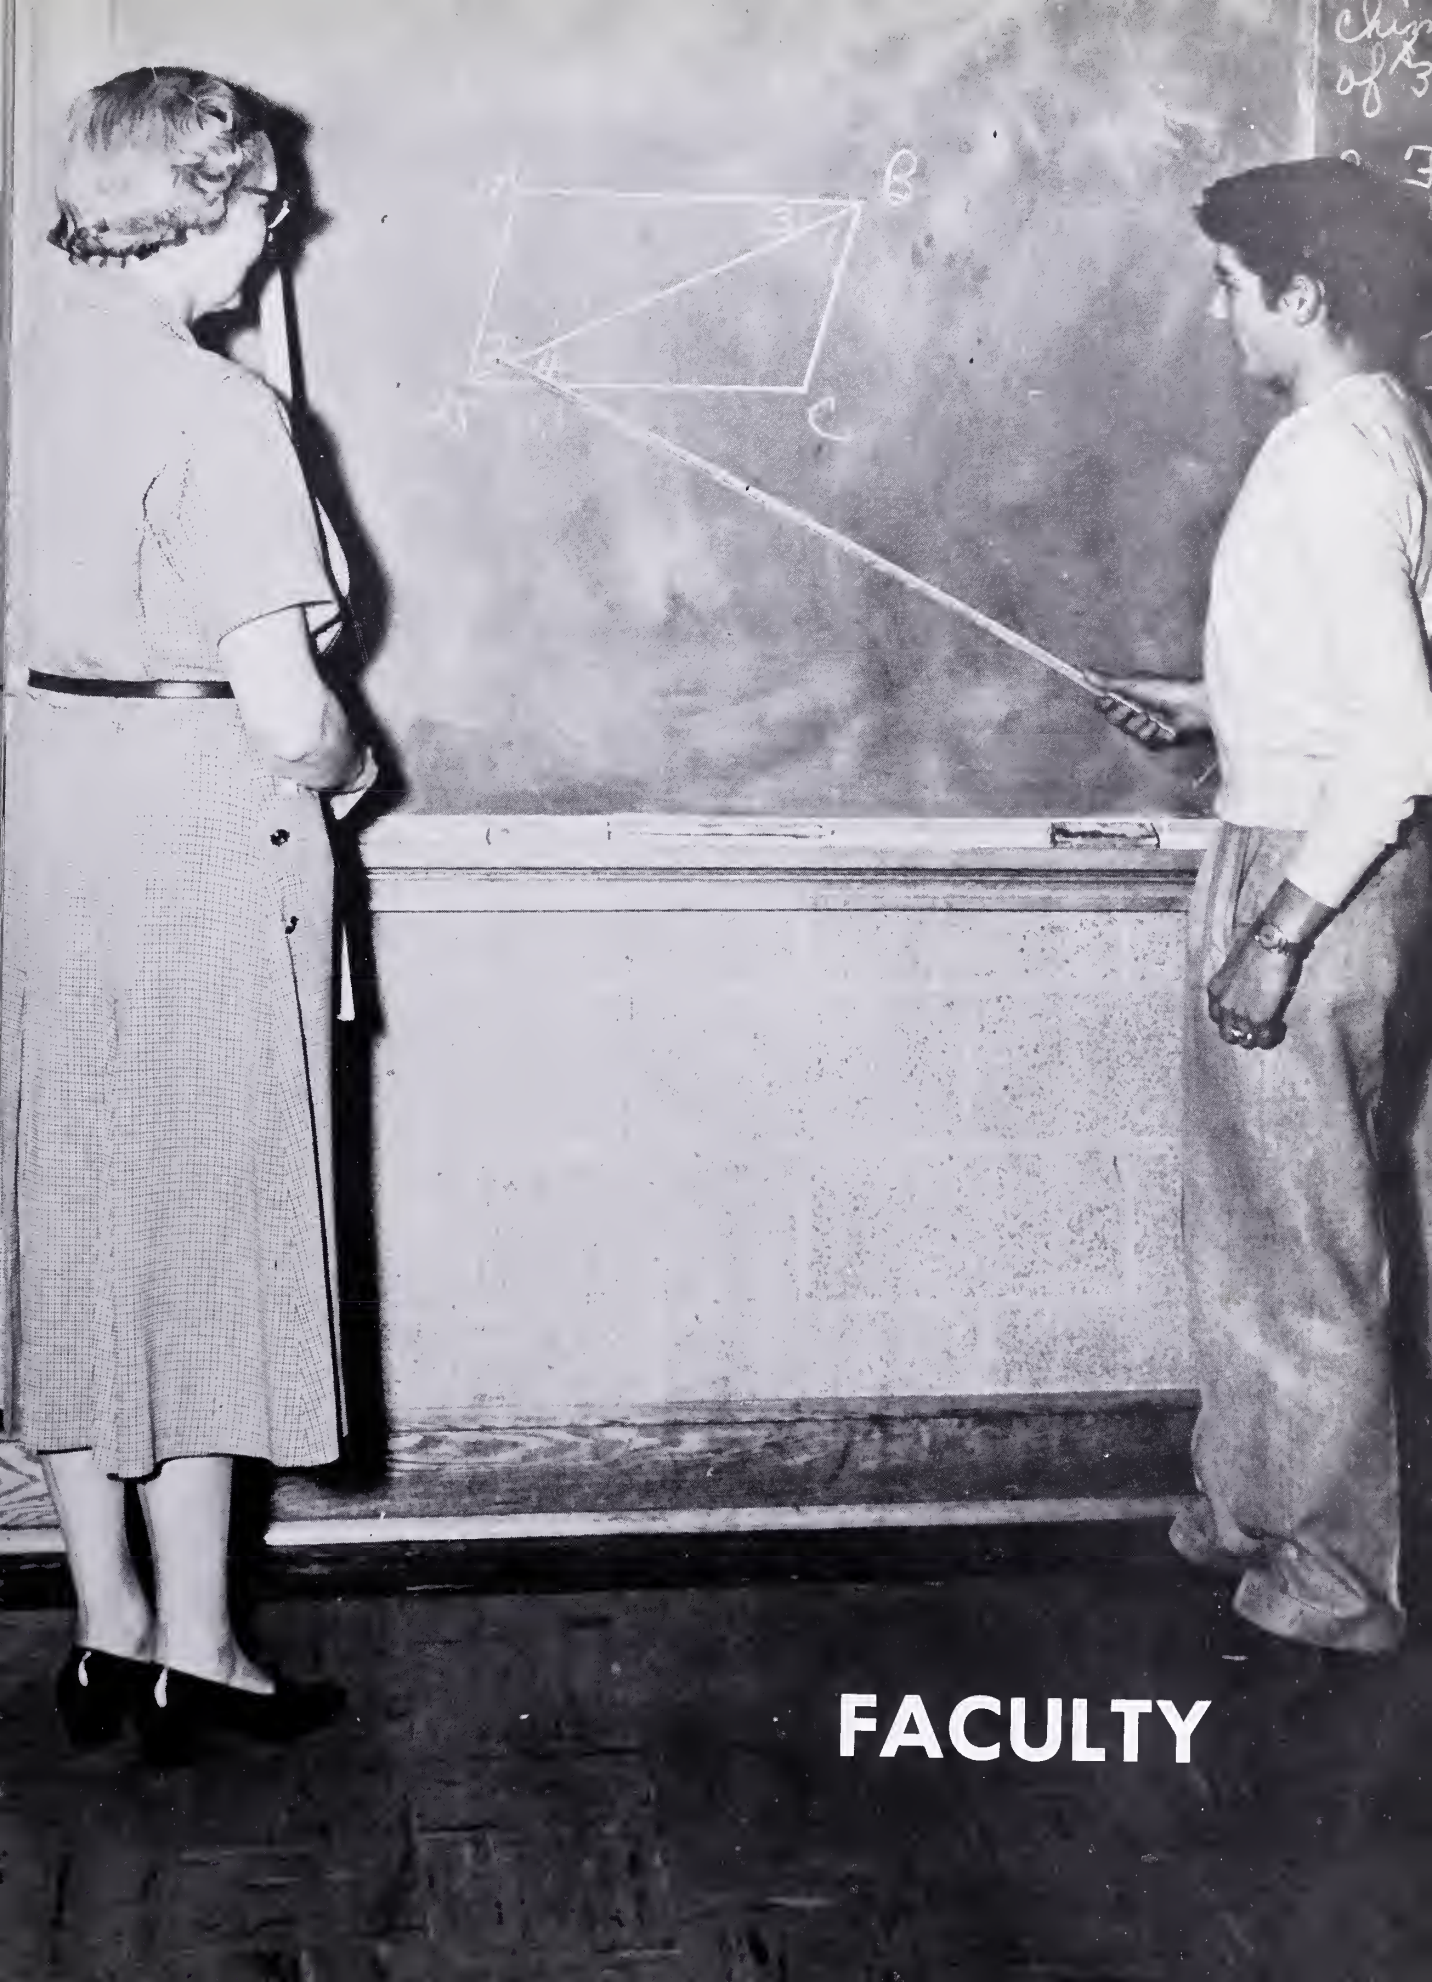
Alma Mater, Richlands High—
May she live for years untold.
In our hearts, you'll always find—
Admiration, that we hold.
Your loyal sons salute you—
Your daughters follow through.
We've lost and kept on smiling—
Our loyalty runs true.
When our task's done, by and by,
We will cheer for Richlands High.
We will cheer for Richlands High.



DEDICATION

Because we [illegible] have [illegible] for our parents, have extended the greatest influence on the molding of our lives, and have given their time, energy, interest, and devotion to help us to become good citizens of the world — now and in the future — it is with the deepest respect and admiration for them that we dedicate this, the eighteenth of THE TORNADO to

OUR TEACHERS



FACULTY

What does your yearbook mean to you?

To you Seniors, may it be a reminder of pleasant and worthwhile experiences as you continue your quest for learning and living.

To you Underclassman, may it be a stimulant for you to do the job at hand, and to make your remaining years at Richlands High School as meaningful as possible.

The World doesn't owe you one thing; on the contrary, you are indebted to your God, to your Parents and to your Country for the opportunities you have had in your school, and for those you will be confronted with in life.

I beg of you to commit yourself to a way of life that will promote a challenge for the achievement of good citizenship and a reward of self-satisfaction.

VETERANS

These young men have served in various fields of the armed forces—both at home and in foreign lands. Because of men like these, we are able to enjoy the American way of living—free from the fears that live in the hearts of girls and boys in other lands. Veterans, we salute you!

The Future Farmers of America have shown great interest and ability in their projects this year.

Field crops, horticulture and truck enterprises amounted to three hundred seventy acres. Poultry enterprises included one hundred fifty laying hens and animal enterprises included two hundred eighty-three animals.

In addition to the regular work, the boys helped make a Nativity scene for a local church, also made props for the Ring Dance, worked on the May Day program, and built scenery for Graduation.

Enterprises closing in '55 showed an income from livestock of over $30,000; crops netted around $23,000.

The curtain first opened on "Christmas Bells," a Christmas pageant, including a one-act Christmas play, "All is Calm." Following that, a three-act play "Strictly Formal," a full-length drama was presented to the students and faculty and later to the public. "Balcony Scene," a one-act play was presented to the student body and at the District Play Festival.

The Dramatons sponsored a weekly devotional program during home room periods to the entire student body.

The Dramatons, from the leading lady to the call boy, have enjoyed a most successful year in dramatics. Every member of the play, the actors and the technical crews, has learned that coming in on his "cue" is what makes for a successful production.

WASHINGTON TRIP

Seniors wait for bus ("Be there at five, or you'll be left.")

At last the bus arrives!

This year seventy-five enthusiastic Seniors and four chaperones invaded Washington, D. C., by bus, stopping to visit Monticello and the University of Virginia on the way there.

The party arrived at the Burlington Hotel about five, and hurriedly dressed for an evening at the Royal Casino Club, where they enjoyed the nightly floor show and dancing.

The next three days were filled with excitement and fun as the group visited the many places of interest in and around Washington, including trips to the Naval Academy at Annapolis, a Big League baseball game and the production of "Oklahoma" at Baltimore and a trip to Mt. Vernon.

The students were complimented on their conduct and behavior by Congressman Pat Jennings as he presented a plaque to T. J. McGlothlin, President of the S.C.A.

One of the high lights of the return trip was the Apple Blossom Festival at Winchester where a number of students preferred to sleep rather than witness the pageant.

Regardless of the lack of sleep in Washington, the group toured the Endless Caverns at three a.m. where there was much evidence of "sleep-walking" and little sight-seeing.

After visiting Natural Bridge the profound tourists arrived in Richlands, sleepy, tired but happy.

Pioneer wagon.

For the first time May Day was held on the new high school campus, the theme being "Pioneering Spirit Lives On." Paul White, narrator, gave a descriptive account of Pioneer Days which was interpreted by dances presented by the Physical Ed Classes.

King Rex and Queen Evelyn and their court presided over the gala occasion, which was witnessed by an enthralled audience of parents, schoolmates and friends. One of the highlights of the pageant was the entrance of a covered wagon filled with members of the choir, who sang songs of the old west.

Unscheduled members entertaining the audience were an impromptu dance given by Donna Lynn Bandy and a pillow fight between the crown bearers, Leslie Smith and Richard Ring.

Dear Florence,
Lots of luck to my best girlfriend. I hope that even if I move we will still be the best of friends. Best of luck with your boyfriends.
Always stay as sweet as you are.
Love,
Florence
